DEDICATION

Mr. Henry Cryer — Coordinator of Athletic Programs

This year the class of 1978 wishes to dedicate its yearbook to Mr. Henry Cryer, a most able and loyal athletic director.

His career at P.C.H.S. began as a teacher and coach. He continued in this capacity for many years. His keen awareness and knowledge of sports soon became apparent to others and this led him to become athletic director. His performance as such has earned the respect and admiration of all who know him.

We wish him continued success.

IN MEMORIAM

Peter Joseph Curtis

He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory is a benediction.

Mrs. Arthur J. Stanley

IN MEMORIAM

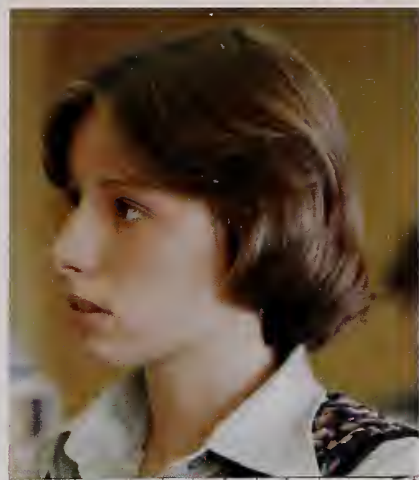

Joanne Brown

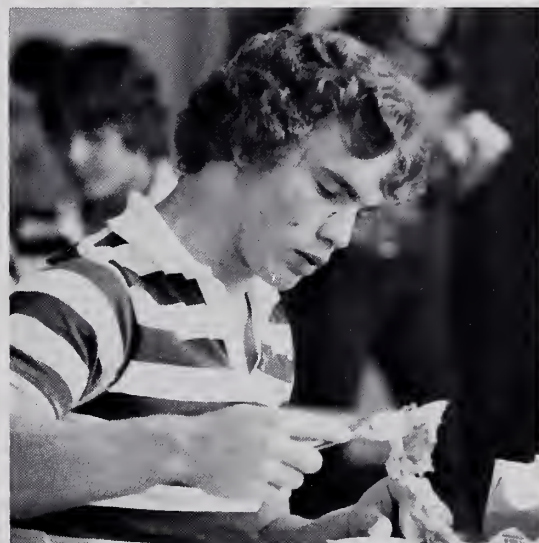

If we had not known you, perhaps the day would be easier to understand.
As it is our memory world has little room to forget.
You were always there when we needed a friend, but now you're gone and we can't understand.
When we think of you, we try to remember the good times.
But it's hard to remember, when our eyes are filled with tears.
Now you're gone and buried, and you will never know the feeling we carried.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Exchange students added a lot to our school this year. We were very proud to have them here and hope some day they will return. We wish the best of luck to those students who came to P.C. and those P.C. students who are going abroad.

A large, stylized letter 'U' serves as a background for the text. The 'U' is composed of three vertical bands of color: light gray on the left, medium gray in the middle, and black on the right. The word 'FALL' is centered within the upper curve of the 'U'.

A large, stylized letter 'U' serves as the background for the page. The 'U' is composed of two main parts: a vertical stem on the right and a horizontal base on the left. The stem is divided into three vertical sections of different shades: a light gray section on the far right, a dark gray section in the middle, and a black section on the left. The horizontal base also follows this color scheme, with a light gray section on the far left, a dark gray section in the middle, and a black section on the right. The text 'FALL SPORTS' is centered horizontally across the middle of the 'U' shape.

In August, the upcoming football season looked quite dismal. Graduation and injuries to crucial players had taken their toll. With a handful of seniors and a corps of inexperienced underclassmen, Coach Carl Freyermuth set to work to form a football team.

Although the Blue Eagles did as well as was predicted, compiling a 3-6-1 season, there were a few bright spots. As each game went by, there was marked improvements in players and in the offense and defense. Towards the end of the season, P-C gave every team a run for their money.

The 1977 Plymouth-Carver football season will be noted as a year when each player dedicated as much as possible toward a team effort. Of these players, Peter Villani and Joe Fernandes were selected as OCL all-stars. Contributing seniors were Chuck Martin, Dave Reardon, Jim DeSisto, Richard Baker, Ed Strong, Cris Post, Victor Armstrong, Pete Stanghelline, Paul Stasinos, Tony Taylor, Lou Montanari, and Doug Preston.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 1977-78 Plymouth-Carver High School Field Hockey Team placed second in the Old Colony League with an 11-4-1 record. This year's squad was led by three outstanding tri-captains: Michele Gregory, Lauri Reid, and Arilee Bagley. Kim Fernandes, scoring 22 goals, broke the record for most goals scored in a season. P-C was edged out of the quarter-finals of the State Tournament losing to Bishop-Stang 2-1. Michele Gregory and Kim Fernandes were selected to the O.C.L. All-Star team and Kim was also selected to the All-Scholastic Brockton Enterprise. Overall, the P-C Field Hockey team had a very successful season.

SOCCER

The 1977 Plymouth Carver Soccer team was under its first year with head coach Peter Karsarjian. Mr. Karsarjian, a graduate of Springfield College, and a varsity soccer player there, had hopes of making P.C. into a good soccer squad. The 1977 season was a good step in that direction. Under the help and guidance of Tri-Captains David Socha, Peter Crawley and Mark Bavelock, the Blue Eagles had a successful season with big wins coming against Hingham and Silver Lake.

STUDENT COUNCIL

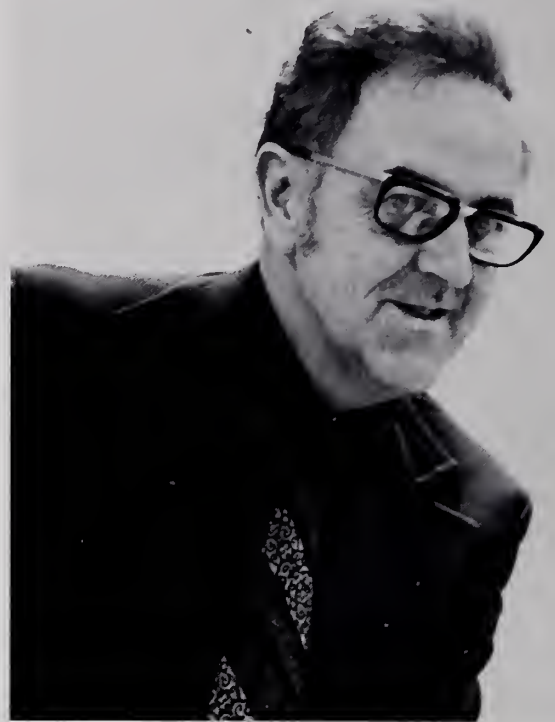

This year, the Student Council strived to become a more recognizable force in the school. Many new ideas became reality, and things like a Spirit Week Parade, Christmas Post Office, Carnation Day could well become school traditions. Consistent leadership and some strong members brought us a year in which the Council was less concerned with profit and more concerned with trying new things and getting others involved. The Council also bought the school a mascot, gave scholarships, and got us into a thing called "Free-wheelin."

AUNTIE MAME

The smash comedy hit "Auntie Mame" was presented by the P.C. Drama Club on December 9 and 10. The show, as directed by Miss Janet Draghetti, proved to be an immense hit. The play dealt with the many antics of Mame Dennis and her unorthodox ways of bringing up her nephew, Patrick. The cast which included Bonnie Willard, Bob Heath, Bill Canada, Lisa Arons, Mark Ferrero, Mary Bastoni, Linda Allen, Jim Horenstein, and many others did a thoroughly professional job which made the show an enjoyable hit.

WINTER SPORTS

BOY'S BASKETBALL

Led by senior captain Dave Diegoli, the Blue Eagles continued to be a very powerful basketball team. P-C entered the 1977-1978 season as reigning Old Colony League champions (1975-1976; 1976-1977) and broke in with a bang as they captured the first annual Silver Lake Invitational Tournament in early December. Strong rebounding and consistent team play highlighted the Eagles' run into the state tournament. Overall, the season was an outstanding one, bearing in mind the fact that nine new varsity players competed who were not on the 1976-1977 team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1977-1978 Girls Basketball Team was led by co-captains Laurie Reid, and Michelle Gregory. Sickness and injury were the main problems of the year. With many disabled members, the squad was seldom at its best. However, the girls gave their all to end the season with a 6-9 record.

"Give me that ball, you brazen hussy."

"Watch out girls 'cause here I come."

ICE HOCKEY

The seniors on the 1977-1978 Ice Hockey team will have some good memories when thinking back to this past season. They had the best record, 6-8-3, since the team of 1973 (9-5-2). The goals and assists statistics were the best in five years. They beat Scituate for the second time in the school's history and were one of two teams to beat the tourney bound Silver Lakers, being the only team to shut them out this year. This year's team was led by Co-captains Sterling Macleod and Mike Maguire and fellow classmates Barry Driscoll and David Socha. All four skaters have played since their sophomore year and started this season determined to win some games, open some eyes, and make ice hockey known in Plymouth. Mike and David led the attack up front while Sterl and Barry protected the two junior goaltenders, Barret Davison and Mark Cingoland.

As fate would have it, the team started off strong against a veteran Westwood team but was soon slowed down by Marshfield and Hingham, the tops in a tough Old Colony League. Then, in what some might have called a "fluke," P-C upset the Laker team with Barrett getting the shut out and David scoring both goals. With the seniors leading the way, the underclassmen started doing their thing. Rob Fantoni was play maker for the junior line with Mike Socha setting up the "garbage man," Kevin Mahoney, who in fifteen games scored ten goals including one "hat trick" (another first in five years). Another junior standout, Brian Driscoll, helped Sterl anchor the defense as well as aid the offensive attack by stickhandling through most of the opponents, accumulating four goals and nine assists. Other juniors were defenseman Bob Montanari who was the team's "heavy hitter," and forward Paul Stewart who was the "utility man," filling in whenever and wherever necessary. This year's team had eight sophomores all of whom lettered and learned about hockey, desire, and determination. These rookies were defensemen: Bucky Willard, Marty Haire, and Steve Caramello; forwards: Bobby Osborn, Bruce Lindberg, Danny Nee, and Greg Weeks; and goalie: Steve Moran. These boys' characteristics were never more evident as when this young team played an experienced Scituate club without Barry and with Mike skating with a bad back in what would be his ninth and last game of the year. Down by one goal after two periods, the team was told of their sick teammate, Barry, who requested a win if at all possible. The captains led the way once again with Mike scoring a tip-in goal from Sterl. Even though P-C was outshooting Scituate 11-1, Barretts big save set the stage for Sterl's game winner with only thirty seconds remaining. That last period was a team playing together, unselfishly, determined, and courageously for their teammate and friend, Barry, who displays these qualities every day. After this game, the frustration of losing Mike and Barry for the season started creeping into the team's efforts. The team did however bounce back to play some good hockey while Brian and David made the O.C.I. All-Star team.

Thank you seniors for your leadership. Thank you juniors for your desire. Thank you sophomores for your determination. Thank you Donny for three years. Thank you team for your dedication and courage. Thank you God for Barry.

GYMNASTICS

Under the direction of first year coach Janet Murphy and captain Phyllis McDonough, the P-C gymnastics team compiled a 4-9 record this year. Despite the defeats which the girls suffered, the younger members of the team were given a chance to gain valuable experience while the senior members strived to better themselves. Senior Marie Doten competed as this year's all-around, doing an outstanding job. Unfortunately, late in the season, Marie suffered an injury and was unable to compete. Coach Murphy turned to veteran Carolyn Turner who filled the position quite nicely. Overall, the 1978 gymnastics team was extremely pleased with its performance and the year ahead looks promising for all.

"I am stuck."

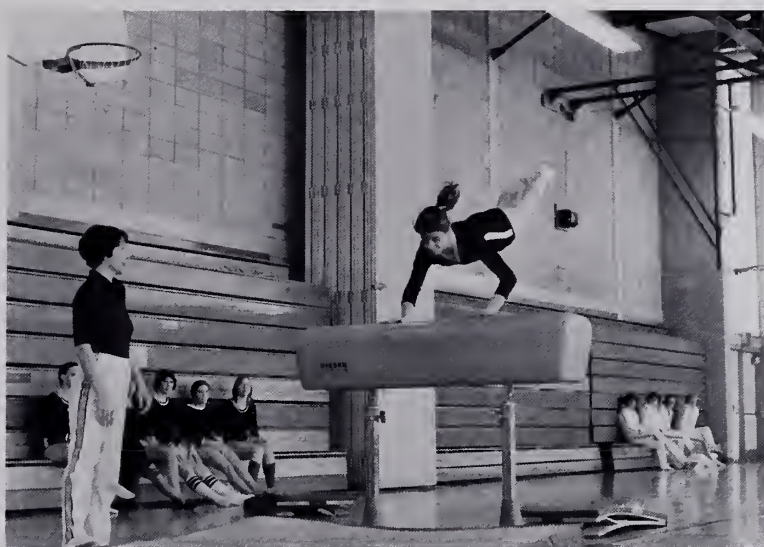

"Phyllis, you're not superman!"

WRESTLING

Despite a number of injuries, including Tri-Captain Les Sewall, the P-C wrestling team displayed a significant improvement over last year's squad. Led by Captains Mark Bavelock and Andy Quint, the team posted a 7 and 8 record, with most of the losses coming in extremely close contests. Next year's team will see the return of nine varsity wrestlers. This strong crop of Juniors and Sophomores should continue to improve rapidly over the next season to make a tough P-C squad.

NO GOODBYES

As we step out on our own,
each into a different world.
We are comforted
only with the memories
of what has passed.
Oh, but what memories.
The years we spent together seem to fuse into one period of fleeting time.
Happy times and sad times bridged by times of indifference and confusion.
Flashes of laughter and tears,
of sunshine and rain,
of being close and
of being torn apart,
all come back to us
as if in one emotion.
Goodbyes we speak to one another are only farewells
in a physical sense.
We will always be together in our memories.

Sometime when you're feeling important, Sometime when your ego's in bloom, Sometime when you take it for granted, You're the best qualified in the room. Sometime when you feel that your going, would leave an unfillable hole, Just follow these simple instructions, And see how it humbles your soul. Take a bucket and fill it with water, Put your hand in it up to the wrist. Pull it out and the that's remaining, Is the measure of how you will be missed. You may splash all you please when you enter, you may stir up the water galore, But stop and you'll find in a minute, That it looks just the same as before. The moral of this quaint example is do just the best you can. Be proud of yourself, but remember, there is no indispensable man.

Don't you feel the day is coming that will stay and remain
When your children see the answers that you saw the same
When the clouds have all gone
there will be no more rain
And the beauty of all things is uncovered again.

Look to this day!

For it is life, the very life of life.

In all its brief course

Lie all the verities and realities of your existence:

The bliss of growth;

The glory of action;

The splendor of achievement;

For yesterday is but a dream,

And tomorrow is only a vision;

But today, well lived, makes every yesterday

a dream of happiness.

And every tomorrow a vision of hope.

I find myself drifting off in space in thought over you. I know that are gone, but I will not — you're dead. The words so cold and meaningless, complete opposite of you. Your life was full of love and warmth and so your memory will be too. Right now I feel so empty and never before so alone. But all the happiness we shared helps me make it through tomorrow and all the sadness that I bear brings me closer to the moral: I guess it is better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all.

LESLIE PAUL SEWALL

I would rather be ashes than dust! I would rather that my spark should burn out in a brilliant blaze. Than it should be stifled by dry rot. I would rather be a superb meteor, every atom of me in magnificent glow than a sleepy and permanent planet. The proper function of a man is to live, not to exist. I shall not waste my days in trying to prolong them. I shall use my time.

If I had my life to live over,
I would relax more.
I would take more chances.
I would climb more mountains and swim more rivers . . .
Next time
I'd start barefooted
earlier in the spring and stay that way
later in the fall.
I'd go to more dances.
I'd ride on more merry-go-rounds.
I'd pick more daisies.

JOYCE MARY TASSINARI

Look to this day for it is life,
the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the realities and truths of existence the joy of growth
the splendor of action
the glory of power.
For yesterday is but a memory
And tomorrow is only a vision
But today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope
Look well, therefore, to this day!

JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom was held on May 14, 1977 in the Tivoli Room at Dunfey's in Hyannis. On entering the ball room, it looked as if one were taking a walk on a starlit night. The dining room, decorated as a terrace looking out onto the dance floor surrounded by stars, was quite appropriate to the theme, "Starry, Starry Night." A selection of fine food was enjoyed by all. The Music Makers provided a wide variety of music, including the grand march "Precious and Few." Ann Fraccolosi was chosen as Prom Queen and a wonderful evening was enjoyed by all. The class of '78 will always remember their Junior Prom because they put so much of themselves into making it one of the best proms that P.C. has ever had.

GROWING UP

The moment we came into the world
Some were boys and some were girls
The doctor took and held us high
Gave us a slap and we began to cry

From that moment on we began changing
As the structures within us started rearranging
Many soon became somewhat taller
While others stayed a little bit smaller

Next it was the first step we took
As our knees and legs wobbled and shook But how quickly the task of walking became and the next thing you knew we were shouting our name

No more bottles; no more bibs
Goodbye high chairs; goodbye cribs
Hello first grade; hello junior high
My how these years just seem to fly!

We no longer played with any of our toys
But were at the stage where, "boys hate girls and girls hate boys"
"Thumbs up!" the girls would say
"Boys have cooties!" so run away

But the years of childhood passed us by
And now it's on to P-C high
We've changed so much in every way
From shape and looks, to what we think and say

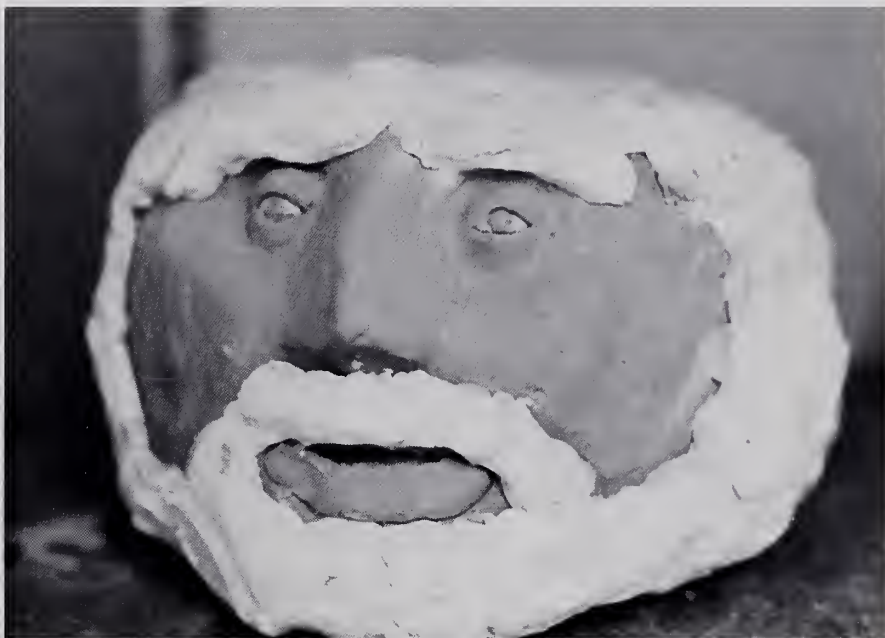

We've learned the value of a true friend
That this person is one whom you can always depend They'll keep a secret or make you smile
And respect your values and your very own style

Of all the care and love we had
That came from a special ma and dad
And still the support they give us now Makes us grow up as they taught us how

We're growing now as we did then
Some from without and a lot from within
And though our lives have yet begun
I'm sure you see how far we have come

As seniors in high school we've matured a great deal
But not nearly as much as we will for I feel
The experience and knowledge of the future will show
That each day we will continue to grow and grow!

Special thanks should be given to the following people for their devotion to the yearbook. Their many hours of hard work are greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Evans, Patti Anastasia, Katie Naughton, Lisa Arons, Debbie Osborn, Mike Paul, Bill Canada, Mark Ferriero, Missing: Peter Bridgia

The Yearbook Staff would like to thank Mark Tassanari, Chuck Chandler, Mike O'Brien, Andy McGonagle, Mrs. Griswold, "JUJU", "RICKY," and "OUR MELINDA"

A large, stylized letter 'U' graphic that serves as a background for the text. The 'U' is composed of three vertical bars of increasing width from left to right, transitioning from light gray to dark gray to black. The bottom of the 'U' is a thick, solid black horizontal bar that curves upwards at the right end.

Now that the task of creating our yearbook is completed, we can look back on this as one of the most rewarding and fulfilling experiences of our lives. Not only have we learned a great deal, but we have had the opportunity to work with a number of people who have been of special help to us:

Mrs. Donna Evans, not only our adviser, but also our friend and confidante. She has spent many long and tedious hours working with and for us on our yearbook. We greatly appreciate all that she has done.

Mark Ferriero, Layout Editor. His dedication and his willingness to work helped make our yearbook successful.

Jon Pierson, Financial Manager. Jon's organization with our finances and advertisements eliminated many financial problems.

Mark Tassinari, photographer. His availability in time of need helped us meet many deadlines.

Arnie Lohmann, representative from Taylor Publishing Company. He has been our source of encouragement throughout the nine months of creating the yearbook.

Last but not least, our yearbook staff. More than we expected attended our meetings and showed an exceptional interest and desire to work.

This yearbook has a great deal of meaning to us; we hope it will be equally meaningful to you.
